

Gen. Omar N. Bradley, U. S. Army chief of staff, laid it on the line yesterday.

Appearing before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee to urge approval of the North Atlantic security pact for ourselves and 17 friendly nations, Gen. Bradley said:

"Our defense frontiers lie in the heart of Europe.

"Geographically, many of those member nations are already in positions where any aggression in Western Europe would be a conquest of their homelands.

"Plans for the common defense of the existing free world must provide for the security of Western Europe without abandoning those countries to the terrors of another costly occupation.

"The joint chiefs of staff are in unanimous agreement that in case of attack America's strategy will be to carry the war back to Europe, to the ultimately subjugating the sources of its military and industrial power."

Doesn't sound much like peace, does it?

But, on second thought, how else do you expect to make this "one world" that has been the eternal dream of all peaceable men? How else but by setting up such a formidable fighting force as one nation will dare start a war?

History discloses two pertinent facts:

1. That the world's longest periods of peace have occurred when one nation had a powerful armament, and whether justly or unjustly, enforced quiet on an unruly earth.
 2. The measures by which men draw themselves together for common defense are tediously arrived at, even in the formation of a single national government, let alone a super-government to enforce peace among all nations.
- You recall what a difficult time history tells us ourselves had in putting together the United States of America. But had we not put it together just as closely and arbitrarily as we did our country would not have the power and influence that it has today.

Words of Gen. Bradley do lay the foundation for peace.

America, coveting not an inch of another nation's territory, is trusted as no other country is trusted in conjunction with the civilized countries of Western Europe in this critical hour is truthfully dedicated to the cause of lasting peace.

Committees Named By Mayor Brown

In a session last night at city hall Mayor Lyle Brown named new committees, and the Hope City Council discussed routine matters.

Much discussion was devoted to water drainage situation on East 15th and South Walnut Street and investigation of the same.

A hospitalization plan for city employees was submitted by W. W. Andrews and turned over to the city attorney.

The park committee was authorized to put the swimming pool in shape.

The finance committee was authorized to negotiate a loan with local banks with which to retire indebtedness for equipment installed at the Water and Light Plant.

The Mayor appointed the following standing committees:

Water and Light committee: Dorsey McKee, chairman; Frank Douglas, Geo. Peck, Finance committee: Dale Jones, chairman; Geo. Peck, H. B. Barr, Police committee: Frank Douglas, chairman; Dorsey McKee, H. B. Barr, Streets and Alleys Committee: H. B. Barr, chairman; Webb Laster, Joe Jones.

Sewer committee: Webb Laster, chairman; Geo. Peck, Joe Jones, Park committee: Frank Douglas, chairman; H. B. Barr, Dorsey McKee, Health Committee: Geo. Peck, Joe Jones, Joe Jones, R. E. Cain, Dale Jones, Airport committee: Geo. Peck, chairman; Webb Laster, Joe Jones, Cemetery committee: H. B. Barr, chairman; H. B. Barr, Dale Jones.

Negotiators Race to Avert Ford Strike

Detroit, May 4 —(AP)—Negotiators raced against time today in an effort to avert a strike of 60,000 Ford workers.

A strike at Ford's gigantic River Rouge plant was scheduled for 11 a. m. tomorrow.

At issue was the CIO United Auto workers charge of "speed-up."

In hopes of avoiding a walkout management and top UAW-CIO leaders arranged to meet at 10 p. m. today for renewed talks in the prolonged dispute.

The UAW international approved Ford Rouge strike yesterday after a series of quick developments which upset earlier hopes of a peaceful settlement.

Ford Local 600, which represents the Rouge workers, called a walkout for today in defiance of the international union's CIO.

Shortly, the UAW's international executive board succeeded in extending the deadline to tomorrow.

Meanwhile, it gave its official blessing to a strike authorization. From both management and union, came charges of "bad faith."

However, both promised "every effort" to settle the issue in the hours that remained before the walkout deadline.

UAW President Walter Reuther was urged by Ford to take part in person at the negotiations.

His presence was asked in a telegram to him from John S. Bugas, Ford vice president and head of the company's industrial relations.

A tie-up at Rouge, key factory in Ford's mammoth nation-wide system, could affect in one way or another 13,000 Ford employees.

Further, a major Ford strike might upset the UAW's timetable for its 1949 bargaining drive in the auto industry.

The UAW has made $100-a-month pension plan goal for this year, along with health and welfare plans and an undetermined wage increase.

Ford was chosen the first target of the campaign.

Only one day before negotiations were to begin, the company was asked to be ready to open negotiations on the UAW's proposals.

Later than May 16. This was the union's 60-day notice under a contract expiring July 15.

High quarters in the UAW already had warned against any policies which might turn the union from its chartered path.

On May 15, the police department will operate with one equipment not set up in the station. T. G. (Chubby) Anderson, has resigned effective May 15, to accept a position elsewhere and the department simply will not have either.

A 1935 half-ton pickup truck used by the street department will be sold to the highest bidder.

An ordinance extending the fire limits of Hope was read for the first time.

Body of War Hero Returned for Burial

Lt. Bill McDougald

The body of 2nd Lieutenant William L. (Bill) McDougald is scheduled to arrive in Prescott at 5:20 a. m., Thursday, May 5. Reburial with full military honors will be held at the Methodist Church of Christ in Prescott at 3 p. m. Sunday, with Rev. John Cannon, McNab in charge, and the American Legion and the Arkansas National Guard. Interment will be in Dian cemetery.

Active pallbearers will be: Earl B. Montgomery, Brice H. Stewart, James Edward Hasley, Harvey D. Montgomery, Dale N. Ledbetter, and James E. Fairchild.

Honorary pallbearers will be: all members of Company C, the 133rd Infantry, who served in Alaska during the war, also, W. T. Yarberry, W. E. Lee, J. E. Ward, Jess Phillips, W. R. Campbell, and M. R. Montgomery, all of Prescott, Route 5.

Lt. McDougald, the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McDougald, of Prescott, was graduated from the Arkansas High school and the Arkansas A. & M. College at Magnolia, entering the army December 23, 1940. Qualified by previous service in the Arkansas National Guard, he received his basic training at Camp Robinson, and went to Alaska where he served 22 months.

For gallantry in action in the Philippines he was commissioned a second lieutenant on the battlefield on March 6, 1945, and later took part in the battle of Okinawa. On April 12, 1945, in an assault on Kakazu Ridge, Lt. McDougald was killed in action.

In recognition of his heroism for devoted service to his country, he was awarded, posthumously, the silver star and the order of the purple heart.

Besides his parents, he is survived by his country, his brothers and a son.

Five Members of Family Die in Blaze

Jersey City, N. J., May 4 —(UP)—Five members of one family were killed and three other persons injured early today in a fire that swept through a three-story brick tenement building.

Fire Chief Frank Erie said seven members of the family of Frank Guazzo, 60, a city street cleaner, were trapped on the top floor of the building. Two escaped with injuries. The other five died.

Eleven members of another family living on the second floor escaped by leaping to the roof of an adjacent building.

Firemen identified the victims as: Guazzo, his son, Albert, 22; Albert's wife, Concetta, 24; and Guazzo's two daughters, Phyllis, 26, and Mrs. Angelo DeMarco, 20.

Spa Backers Fight to Keep Radio Station

Washington, May 3 —(Special)—A list of exceptions to the proposed March 25 order of the Federal Communications commission to permit the removal of Station KTHS to West Memphis was filed here Tuesday by attorneys for the Hot Springs Broadcasting Co.

Hot Springs Broadcasting Co. is seeking a permit to construct a station of 50,000 watts on the KTHS frequency of 1090 kilocycles.

The exceptions, filed by Attorney Paul Spearman with Attorney George E. McHenry and Hot Springs City Attorney A. D. Shelton joining with him, charge that the proposed decision is "arbitrary, capricious, unjust, unwarranted and erroneous."

"An attempt to construct the station at West Memphis, on the extreme eastern edge of Arkansas, is nothing if not a pure subterfuge and its service to the Havana treaty and its spirit in actuality as a station for the purpose of establishing it in actuality as a Memphis station; a mere commercial move for private profit and in complete and total disregard of the equities of the state of Arkansas and a violation of the spirit, if not indeed of the letter, of the 1900 kees to that state by treaty, entirely beyond the scope of the communications act or any authority of discretion conferred upon the "C" of "C."

Reds Agree to Meet, Work Out Berlin Details

New York, May 4 —(AP)—Soviet Russia has agreed to meet with the Western powers to work out details for lifting the Berlin blockades and holding a four-power meeting of the foreign ministers' council.

"It is now possible to consider detailed arrangements," the United States announced today. Representatives of the four powers were called into session at 12:30 p. m. (10:30 a. m. Central Standard Time). The conferees are:

United States—Philip C. Jessup.
Soviet Union—Jakob A. Malik.
Great Britain—Sir Alexander Cadogan.
France—Jean Chauvel.

If all goes well, the meeting will make it likely that the Berlin blockades can be lifted sometime next week and the foreign ministers will meet in Paris around May 25. A statement of the foreign ministers, held in London in December 1947, ended in failure over the German question. Since that time the Western powers also have sponsored the setting up of a government for Western Germany.

The foreign ministers who will meet in Paris are:

United States—Dean Acheson.
Soviet Union—Andrei V. Vishinskiy.
Great Britain—Ernest Bevin.
France—Robert Schuman.

The foreign ministers also will take important decisions. Jessup is expected to accompany Acheson. Meeting was issued by Porter McKee, spokesman for the United States delegation to the United Nations. It read:

In view of the fact that the exchange of views between Mr. (Philip C.) Jessup, acting on behalf of the three Western powers, and Mr. (Jakob) Malik, on behalf of the Soviet Union, have reached a point where it is now possible to consider detailed arrangements for the reciprocal lifting of the Berlin and between the zones in Germany, and for the holding of a meeting of the council of foreign ministers, the next consideration will include the representatives of the French and British governments as well as Mr. Malik and Mr. Jessup. The four representatives have arranged to meet at U. S. U. N. Headquarters, Mission to the United Nations, 2 Park ave., at 12:30 today.

Promises of Campaign Looks Sad

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, May 4 —(AP)—The campaign promises of President Truman's Democrats—the promises of what they'd do if they won control of congress this year, which they did—are beginning to look pretty sad.

On two of the biggest issues—civil rights and a new labor bill—the Truman administration so far has been shoved around all day long by the Democrats.

Republicans and Southern Democrats have teamed up on both issues against the Democrats who followed the lead of Mr. Truman and campaign promises of his Democrats in the elections.

Organized labor and Negroes are a minority.

One with a big stake in a new labor law and the other with its hopes pinned on new civil rights laws have been the Truman Democrats in the House and Senate.

For the Trumanites had promised groups to push through new laws to their liking, on civil rights and on labor. The Democrats, however, had openly conceded that the administration's Taft-Hartley repeal bill, introduced by Rep. Lesinski (D-Mich.), could pass the house without a number of amendments.

So they offered those amendments yesterday in a substitute bill. To the surprise of some unionists, they even restored the Taft-Hartley act provision for 60-day injunctions in the case of strikes in vital industries. Rayburn himself made one of his rare speeches, fervently begging the house to adopt the substitute.

But in the afternoon the G. O. P. Dixie wave rolled over the Rayburn-sponsored bill and washed it out, 211 to 183. A few pro-union congressmen joined the coalition and voted "no."

During the debate on this bill, organized labor was in a disorganized condition. Some unions assigned themselves to the compromise. Others opposed it. Many pro-union congressmen were being yanked in two directions at once.

This controversy still flickers today. Some union officials bitterly blamed the Democratic party for compromising at all.

On the other hand Joe Rhoden, representing the Chicago local of the International Typographical union (AFL), told a reporter that those pro-union Democrats who voted against the compromise bill "made a serious mistake."

It is possible that overnight the Trumanites could get some of the opposition to swing over to their side today, but that seemed unlikely.

So by nightfall the final and deciding vote on the Wagner act was expected. This doesn't finish the labor bill.

If the house passes it, it doesn't become law unless the senate also approves it. The senate isn't ready to vote on a labor bill yet.

What it finally will vote for is anybody's guess. But it probably will be a lot tougher than the Trumanites or labor wanted.

There was a pretty good show-down on this earlier in this session when Southern Democrats and Republicans joined forces again.

There was a three week's filibuster at that time. It wasn't over the civil rights issue was at the heart of the discussion.

The filibuster was over a change in the rules. If the Trumanites had won they'd have a fair chance of getting some kind of action on a civil rights bill at this session.

But the Trumanites lost and the chance of the senate voting on civil rights this year looks dim.

By the end of 1947 American firms had $23 billion worth of group life insurance for their employees.

Southerners, GOP Team to Stun Truman

By MAX HALL

Washington, May 4 —(AP)—The House of Representatives, having punctured President Truman's program for Taft-Hartley act repeal, gathered today to meet at 10 a. m. CST on the another hair-raising vote on the Wood labor bill.

Last night a high-riding alliance of Republicans and Southern Democrats won a 217-203 house victory for the Wood bill, which would keep most of the Taft-Hartley law on the books.

Today a motion was in order to "recommit" the bill—that is, send it to the house labor committee. That might be the same as killing the bill. Success of the motion would probably mean that the house, without any labor bill before it at all, would sit back and wait for the senate to pass a labor measure and send it over.

Nurse's Aide Shot, Killed in Little Rock

Little Rock, May 4.—(AP)—An unidentified white man shot and killed a nurse's aide near the University of Arkansas medical school hospital here this morning, then fled.

Witnesses told police that the killer pumped five bullets into the back of Mrs. Sally Barner, 40, after the two had conversed on the sidewalk. The nurse's boyd fell into the street.

Detective Sgt. John Dilbeck said Nathaniel Benson told him he saw the woman talking with a man. Then the woman turned and started walking towards the hospital. As she did, the man whipped out a pistol and started shooting.

Mrs. C. H. Farmer, a Methodist minister's wife, said Mrs. Barner was dead when she reached her side. She said the killer ran eastward.

Sgt. A. V. Walls said a .38 calibre automatic pistol was found beneath a hedge at MacArthur park near the scene. Police said they also found a discarded man's jacket with a picture of Mrs. Barner in a pocket in an alley.

The nurse's husband, Bill Barner, a truck driver, was in tears when he was taken to the scene of the killing.

Pulaski County Prosecutor Ed. W. Dunnaway said, before her marriage to Barner, Mrs. Barner was married to a former Texas convict, whose name was not disclosed. He is being sought for questioning.

Texarkana Cafes Are Picketed

Texarkana, May 4.—(UP)—An attempt to organize employees of cafes, hotels and liquor stores in Texarkana continued today after a picket line was established in front of a second large cafe.

Pickets are now operating in front of the Jefferson coffee shop and the White House cafe although both establishments remained open.

Russell R. Krogner, secretary-manager of the local hotel and hotel, restaurant employees and bartenders union, AFL, said the group plans to seek union recognition in other Texarkana cafes. Krogner claims seven cafes and liquor stores have signed contracts with the organization and several other contracts are in the talking stage.

Worshippers of Apollo hailed him for many achievements, among them for destroying mice.

ISLAND OF ESCAPE

By Hugh Lawrence Nelson

Mrs. Warren turned suddenly, laughed at Bea. "Looking over your competition."

The Sorry: Four lovely women, Bea Cosgrove and Agnes Firth, spinners, Mrs. Mabel Jones and Mrs. Lilly Warren, widows, are greeted on Spare Island by wealthy, eccentric, middle-aged Henry Gough Harding, who says after a three month period he will choose one as his bride and found a new way of life. He divides the household duties assigning Miss Cosgrove to the kitchen. Bea, alone, hides her automatic pistol in the sugar stores. But as she does this she notes the swinging door moving gently back and forth.

In the upper story the flat roof had collected the heat of the day and used it to release odors of fresh paint and new wood. Miss Cosgrove forced open the small window, looked out into blackness.

"A long way down,"

"Three hundred feet," Lilly Warren agreed. "Or at least that's what our genial host told me. You think he's nuts?"

"Hadden't thought of it," Bea said.

Lilly Warren swung her bare feet onto the floor, stood up and opened her overnight case. "Don't give me that. You must've thought something. All this share the work and uniforms. And what they said about sticking your head out. Or don't you speak Spanish?"

"No. What did they say?"

"Oh — I couldn't get much sense out of it. Just an idea there's something wrong here. But the captain and the mate, his cousin or something, about the king's son, details about you," Lilly looked at Bea critically. "The captain thought you're hot stuff."

"What did he say just as we docked? When the men laughed?"

Lilly told her the men laughed. "He was wrong. The wrong way travels the road two times."

"Where'd you learn Spanish?"

"In L. A. I liked the crack the guy on the dock made. Four birds in the hand are better than a hundred flying. So we're four birds in your know whose hand."

Bea pulled open empty drawers in the chest and dresser. She found a narrow door opening into a tiny bare closet. Plenty of room for the changes of underwear, a spare slip, a thin silk robe and a nightdress that her bag held.

"Say, you know there's a little railroad, a tunicular he calls it, down to the storehouse?" Lilly asked.

"Where'd you learn Spanish?"

Woman Tells Everything But Identity

Frankfurt, May 4.—(UP)—A tiny brunette with a southern accent and an Austrian passport was sentenced to four months in jail today for entering Germany illegally and claiming falsely to work for the military government.

But her trial before an American military court failed to establish her identity. She still pretended she was Hildegard Peggy McCarty of Keyser, W. Va. The army said she was Hildegard Peggy McCarty, late of Vienna.

Judge L. A. Coleman, who by coincidence also comes from West Virginia—Wheeling—said her identity had no effect on her guilt anyway. He agreed to permit her to start her sentence in a military hospital, where she has been since Monday for observation.

Peggy, as she was known by the G.I.'s with whom she said she has "played" in Germany, told the court that a love affair with a former army lieutenant from Cincinnati, O., was responsible for her plight.

She said she followed the lieutenant to Europe from a Tennessee camp, then accompanied him through France, Germany and Austria. She said she bore him two children, but didn't say what had happened to them.

Her trans-Atlantic love affair, she said, had left her with heart trouble and a lung ailment and worn her down to a mere 76 pounds.

Peggy asked the court to let her so she could marry a private attached to the army hospital. The soldier, Troy Lupo, conceded to newsmen that he was Peggy's fiancé, but refused to say where he was from or to discuss the case further.

Find Body of Mother of Baby That Suffocated

Orlando, Fla., May 4.—(UP)—Police today identified the body of a woman recovered from a lake near here as that of Mrs. C. D. Garten of Beckley, W. Va., whose baby's death was found smothered to death in the Garten home Saturday.

A search for Mrs. Garten was begun after her husband found their three-month-old baby smothered in clothing inside a box in a closet.

Coroner E. G. Duckworth said the child died of suffocation.

Bea Cosgrove undressed quickly, piled her clothes neatly, slipped on the thin robe and pulled it tight around her waist.

"How'd you happen to come here?" Lilly called.

Bea Cosgrove stopped brushing her hair. She stared at her reflection without seeing it. She said, "I taught school for 20 years. I couldn't stand it any more. Like a dog, I was lonely. So I joined the club and here I am."

Mrs. Warren splashed. "I never had much education myself. What I know I found out the hard way. I guess I'm dumb, but I'd never picked you for a schoolteacher."

"Why not?"

"I dunno. The way you carry yourself maybe. Or maybe because you seem hard — in a soft sort of way. Anyhow you know the score, always thought school teachers were pretty dumb about the facts of life."

"About average. And that's bad enough."

"See. That's what I mean about you. Say, what sort of dope is Mrs. Gough? You roomed with her on the way. What's she say and do?"

"She stayed on her bunk. Stared at the ceiling."

Mrs. Warren stood in the doorway to dry herself. "That must have been cozy. And is Jonesey skinny? At that you got a better break than I did. That Agnes Firth's a twitcher. Can she fidget? She sure must have something on her mind."

"Don't we all?" Bea asked lightly.

Lilly stopped dusting herself with powder, said seriously, "You're right there I guess. None of us'd be here if we weren't trying to get away from something, or trying to get something. Well, the bath's all yours."

Miss Cosgrove went to the door, looked inside. "You left a mess," she said.

"Division of labor. You remember? You're supposed to do the housework."

"All right. But remember we change off on these jobs. There'll be a time."

"Maybe you got something there. Well, no harm trying. Lilly did a quick but thoroughly efficient job on the bath. 'You know, I think maybe we'll get along. I don't have much use for anyone who lets people impose.'"

Bea Cosgrove awoke from troubled sleep and a dream she refused to remember. She sat up. In the quiet, above the sound of Lilly's breathing, she heard the muffled pad of footsteps. A man's footsteps, slow, careful, rising closer. They came level, paused, went on upward.

Her body was rigid, bathed in perspiration. In the dark, oriental room was difficult. And Henry Harding had walked through tormented dreams before. Suddenly she knew. The bedroom wall formed a side of the tower. There was a stairway inside. Harding, the man of flesh and blood, had listened and walked past. She lay back, fought to relax, and began trembling. She strained her ears for further sound. Now she heard the surf below. Once again the rumble, it grew, filled her whole consciousness.

The clothes she had placed so neatly were disarranged. Lilly Warren stood beside them, holding Bea's girdle for closer inspection.

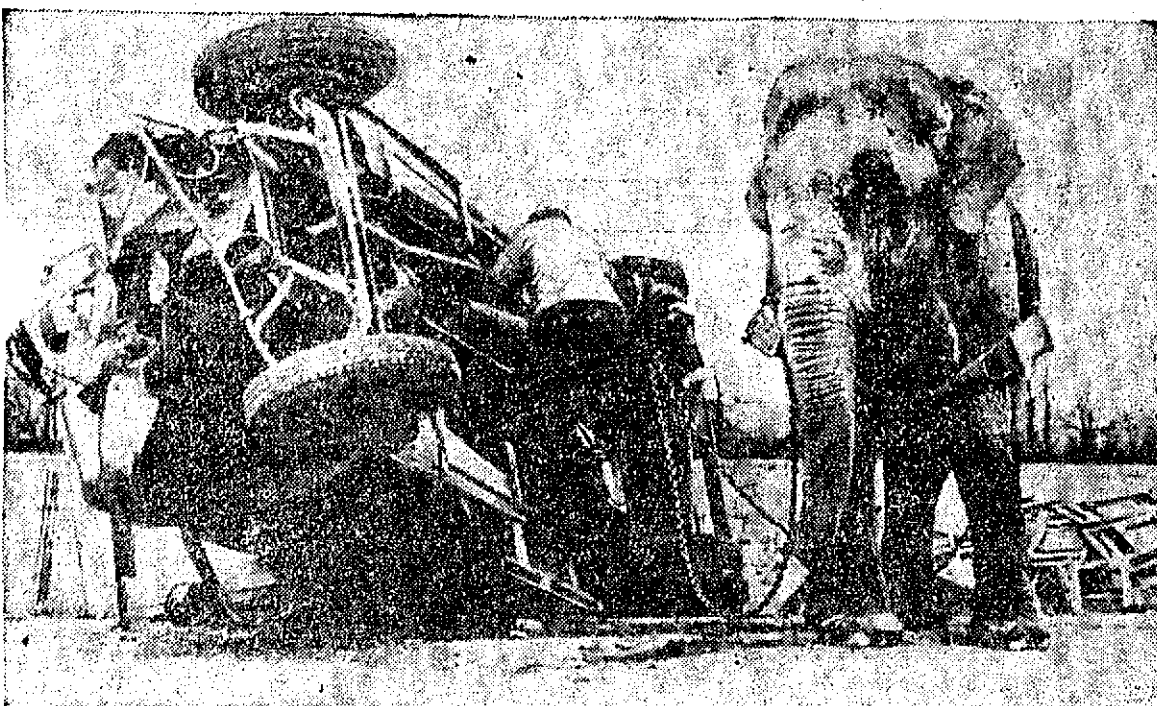

"Hey," Mrs. Warren called, "you going to sleep all day?"

Bea sat up, yawned. Good morning.

"Is it? I didn't know how you'd feel after the way you were yipping and carrying on in the night. About what you did to some guy named Jim."

Says Moscow Willing to Lift Cold War for Purpose of Easing Economic Barriers

By DeWITT MacKENZIE AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

The Soviet proposal for ending the Berlin blockade continues to present a complicated study of wheels within wheels.

The latest slant on the problem shows Moscow anxious to shelve the cold war for the purpose of easing the economic barriers between Eastern and Western Europe, besides ending the Berlin blockade. Why? Well, an authoritative American source in Berlin puts it like this:

"Eastern Europe is starved for manufactured goods which Russia cannot supply. Having made concessions in Germany the next step (for Russia) is to make others relieve the plight of her satellites."

In support of this thesis we see little Czechoslovakia send a delegation to Washington to ask for aid from the capitalists whom Communists damns so heartily. She wants credits of at least $50,000,000 and easement of the export controls on U. S. shipments to this once thriving state, which now lies behind the iron curtain.

Dr. Hugo Skala, a member of the four-man Czech delegation to Washington, reports that Czechoslovakia is threatened with an early economic crisis in the Prague finance ministry, quit the delegation as soon as he reached America and asked the state department for asylum as a political refugee.

Los Angeles, May 4.—(UP)—Wallace Beery "held her in bondage" by repeatedly professing love for her, Mrs. Gloria Schumm, 34, charges in a suit seeking $104,135 from his estate to support a claim she claims is theirs.

The petition, filed yesterday, asserts that the late actor promised to marry the film bit player when she became pregnant and before she remarried her divorced husband, Han Schumm. She claims Beery exercised "undue influence" on her since she was 13.

Mrs. Schumm, initiated a paternity suit shortly before Beery's death April 15 and said later she rejected an offer to settle for $20,000.

In his will disposing of an estate estimated at up to $2,000,000, Beery denied paternity of the child and specified that under no circumstances was it to inherit any part of the estate.

The child, named John, now is 14 months old.

and Dr. Skala told the Overseas Writers club in Washington that the government's foreign exchange resources have dropped from about $400,000,000 to some $28,000,000. "He predicted that the situation would become serious unless the country gets help soon."

So the Moscow controlled Prague government sends its envoys to Washington to ask for help. The significance of America's attitude is clear enough. She has no intention of weakening her position, or that of her Allies, by strengthening a Communist bloc which is making war on all non-Communist countries.

Indications are that the answer "no" will apply not only to Czechoslovakia but to other Communist satellites. Yugoslavia, which is at loggerheads with Moscow, apparently is no longer regarded as in the same category. DOROTHY DIX Objects of Pity

Dear Mrs. Dix: I am married to a philosopher and I wish that there were some way that I could show the girls who are drunk on love from him what a terrible mistake they are making in having affairs with a married man. I love my husband very dearly and I am not going to break up my home because of the few stolen hours he spends with other women. Nor has my husband the slightest intention of giving up his home, his children, and his business for any little cutie.

I am not sorry for myself, because my husband gives me the best he has in him. The ones I feel pity for are the young girls who are wasting their precious youth on him, when they could be spending their time in making for themselves a home life that they could enjoy as long as they lived.

One of these days, like every other girl who throws away her life on a married man, they will find themselves alone, disillusioned and forsaken, and very bitter. So I beg them to wake up from their romantic dream of getting the Other Woman's husband while they still have the youth and appeal to attract men for themselves. I beg them to be brave enough to find out where they really stand with the men with whom they are in love. Some day they will discover that they have missed the last boat if they dillydally with a philosopher who is playing with love.

I wish there were some way of making romantic young girls, who are playing around with their bosses, realize that there is no crime for which a woman pays so dearly as being a love thief.

A WOMAN WHO KNOWS
Answer: Certainly the cruelist of all men are those who play with a young girl's heart. It is as easy as robbing a blind baby of its candy, yet many men who are old and hardened and world-wise seem to have the same taste for it that they have for forbidden fruit.

No Trick
Many men specialize in the baby-face type of girl. She is young and unsophisticated and thinks every man a godling, and it is no trick at all to win her affection. Everything is fine until the man who has taught her to love gets tired of her and chucks her into the discard.

Many girls have seen this happen to other girls. The wise ones have been warned in time to save themselves. The ones who believed it couldn't happen to them have given their hearts to a dog to tear.

Dear Dorothy Dix: We have a problem child who is six years old and who will never do a thing without a spanking. We have tried to teach him right from wrong, but it doesn't make any difference what we tell him to do, or not to do. He does just what he wants to do. His teacher says that he is unusually brilliant in mind, and he does good work at times, but it is seldom that he wants to do what you want him to do.

He is an only child and we love him with all our hearts, but we don't know what to do with him. We have spanked him so much that we are ashamed of ourselves. We also punish him other ways besides spanking. He believes it do any good. Would you please advise us as to how to handle him?

WORRIED PARENTS
Answer: I think you are making a fatal mistake in trying to force an adult code of conduct on a six-year-old child. Why, he is only a baby, and you are expecting him to act like a grown-up! At that age no child can reason out a line of behavior. What he needs is to be jolled and petted and made much of, and if you will try that out on him you won't have to do so much spanking. I think you and your husband are the ones who are expecting the impossible of a mere babe. Cut out the spanking entirely. Leave him alone for a little while until he forgets the many strictures that were forced upon him and that kept him always in a state of rebellion then see if you cannot establish a better relationship between you and the infant.

Dear Dorothy Dix: Why do so many people consider it their duty to load down everybody with whom they come in contact with advice? More homes have been wrecked, more friendships broken up, more families separated for life, by tussy, meddlesome people, who consider it their business to interfere with other people's affairs, than from any other causes. Why?

SUFFERING SALLY
Answer: I don't know, Sally. It is a mystery. Yet I am one who has always suffered, from my cradle up, by being the victim of advisers. But I do not suffer alone. Everybody I know has to listen to other people tell them how to manage their husbands, what clothes to wear, what diet they should follow, and how to rear their children.

Hope Loses to N. H. By Shutout

For the second time this season the Hope Braves baseball team dropped a close 2-0 decision to North Heights of Texarkana here
Tuesday afternoon.

The visitors managed to get their runs off of 2 hits which Edsel Nix allowed them while Hope failed to score on the three safeties, including a double by Sutton, they got off Flaherty.

Little Rock, May 4 —(AP)— Rain clobbered off the Southern Association's "Hot Rocks" just as it did the atmosphere.

Of course, opposing teams have had something to do with it, but nevertheless the factor of rain was present in the interruption of the Little Rock Travelers' fast start on the baseball field. It's been present in the Rocks' troubles since, too.

The Travelers had won seven straight when rain brought them adrift at New Orleans one day and a doubleheader the next. Little Rock found the task of keeping its streak alive by winning twice in the same day too much. The Arkansas lost the second game.

Then they moved to Mobile after winning the series finale at New Orleans. More rain fell. The Rocks dropped the only tilt in the Alabama city.

Idle since last Tuesday, the Travelers came home Sunday. Rain turned the diamond into a quagmire, but a "game" was played just the same. Atlanta won then, and again Monday night.

Other teams have been idle, too. And they've had to run and field on the same muddy diamonds. But the Rocks had to have their schedule interrupted while they were hot, and they'll probably always feel they would have done better if it hadn't rained.

In the Atlanta series, the Travelers' fielding was on the verge of comical. They may not have been rolling over and playing dead, but they sure fell on their faces a lot. Little Rock pitchers had a rough time of it also, and, by comparison, the Travs were sadly incompetent at the plate.

Maybe the Rocks were just getting out of their system (the things they hadn't done in their time start). They probably would have lost the Atlanta series anyway, for the Crackers, finally showing the form expected of them, looked very much like a champion.

Blytheville is in the unusual position of having four performers qualified for each event of the state high school track and field meet here Friday and Saturday. The Chicks qualified without running a race, since there wasn't another Class A Team in District three this year.

No official standings of the Arkansas Intercollegiate conference have been compiled this spring. The reason: Arkansas State is the only member which has filed required reports regularly with statistician Johnie Burnett.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bemis entertained with a buffet dinner at their beautiful new home on Monday evening, honoring their house guests Mr. and Mrs. John Darsie of Plainfield, New Jersey.

Quantities of roses were placed at vantage points throughout the spacious rooms.

The guests were invited into the dining room and seated at small tables. The serving table was covered with a white damask cloth and centered with roses in a silver bowl flanked with pink candles in crystal holders.

Covers were laid for Dr. and Mrs. O. G. Hirst, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Bemis, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bemis, Mrs. Mrs. D. K. Bemis and Mr. and Mrs. Orin Ellsworth.

The women of the Presbyterian church U. S. held their regular meeting on Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Mary Montgomery with nineteen members and one guest, Mrs. John Darsie of Plainfield, New Jersey, present.

Mrs. W. G. Bensberg opened the meeting with prayer. Mrs. S. O. Logan, president, presided over the business. She presented Mrs. T. E. Logan, newly elected Quachita Presbyterian president who made a brief talk.

Mrs. Allen Gee, Sr., secretary, presented the minutes of the last meeting. Mrs. Mary Montgomery, treasurer made a financial statement.

Reports of general officers and cause secretaries were filed. Mrs. Bensberg and Mrs. T. E. Logan gave glowing accounts of the Quachita Presbyterian which convened in Arkadelphia April 28-29.

Mrs. Tom Bemis, circle co-chairman, conducted the circle business. Mrs. S. O. Logan presented the program for the afternoon on "Community Aches." Those giving discussions were Mrs. J. I. McCarty, Mrs. E. S. Cass, Mrs. R. P. Hamby and Miss Julia Lo Gan.

The Birthday offering for the American Bible Society and for mission work in Brazil was received by the treasurer. A prayer dedication was offered by Mrs. Lo Gan.

The meeting adjourned with sentence prayers after which delicious cake and ice cream were served by the hostess.

The City Council of the City of Prescott met in regular session Monday night with Mayor C. D. Ward presiding.

Three members were absent, J. D. Cornish, O. Wellsworth, and Jewel White.

Packards Enter Mass 'Driveaway'

Utica, Mich., May 2 — Nearly 2,000 gold-painted automobiles, valued at over $3,000,000, participated Tuesday, May 3, in the auto industry's largest postwar mass driveaway of new cars.

Approximately 3,000 dealers and associates will fanned out from the Packard Motor Car Company's 54-acre proving grounds near here to all parts of the country. The parade of gold cars climaxed the company's two-day presentation of new Golden Anniversary Packards.

Starting around 9:30 a.m. (EST) the dealers drove away the new cars at the rate of three a minute. Thus, nine to ten hours was required to clear the 27-acre infield of the two and one half concrete test track.

Detroit observers consider the mass driveaway as full-blown symbol of the Nation's long-awaited return to the buyer's market in new cars.

The Golden Anniversary Packards, each equipped with a gold ignition keys, will parade with military precision from the infield through the avenue of gold banners, representing destinations in all 48 States.

The proving grounds, where a speed record of 145 miles per hour was set in 1946, will have a carnival atmosphere. Tons of hot dogs and beans and tank-loads of coffee will be served throughout the day. A mobile unit will provide facilities for long distance telephone calls. Approximately 1,000 Packard employees were on duty to handle details of the mass driveaway. Scores of state and local police co-operated in maintaining a smooth flow of traffic.

California dealers will travel the longest distance back home, spending four or five days on the road. The first formal display of the Golden Anniversary Packards will be held in showrooms across the Country Saturday (May 7).

The dealers started arriving by plane and train last Saturday (April 30) and jammed nine of Detroit's leading hotels. Among special trains were those from Boston, St. Louis and Chicago. Texans turned up in ten-gallon hats and high-heeled boots, while other dealers appeared in regalia suggestive of their areas.

The two-day introduction of the new cars started the afternoon of May 2 with a $200,000 show in Detroit's Masonic Temple. Karl M. Greiner, vice-president and general sales manager, welcomed the dealers. A cast of 50 persons presented a pageant, "Milestones For Tomorrow." The dealers saw old Model A, first Packard built in 1939 and still able to run under its own power.

George T. Christopher, president and general manager, spoke on "Packard's Past, Present and Future." He emphasized that 1949 can be just as good an auto year for Packard as 1948, "especially with the new Ultramatic Drive, unlike any other no-shift drive yet produced."

C. E. Briggs, assistant general sales manager, and C. D. Thomas, sales promotion manager, aided Greiner in the presentation of the Golden Anniversary cars in 14 different body types.

Stars of stage and screen entertained the dealers tonight, prior to the mass driveaway.

The program starred Frances Langford, with Jack Herbert as master of ceremonies. Other entertainers included Ray Gorrell and his orchestra, featuring Marion Gillette and Don Abele; Borah Minneville and his "Harmonica Rascals"; the Dorothy Dorben "Adorables"; the Malone sisters; the Parker brothers; Bob Barkey, and Arren and Broderick.

sent the bills for the month of April which was on motion approved and recorder was instructed to issue warrants in payment thereof.

R. E. Lindblad, band director was present, and told the council he would like to give a band concert each week during the summer months and asked the City Council to donate funds for them. After some discussion the council voted to donate $20. to the Prescott band during June and July.

Due to the absence of several alderman the ordinances and resolutions which were scheduled for action last night were tabled until next regular or called meeting.

Mayor Ward called special meeting for May 16 to take up an unfinished business which was not acted upon last night.

The Rev. and Mrs. W. R. Burks the Rev. and Mrs. E. D. Galloway, Mrs. John A. Davis, Mrs. H. L. Eaton, Mrs. Dan Pittman, Mrs. J. E. Hesterly, Mrs. E. M. Sharp, Mrs. Roy Duke and Mrs. E. A. Wynn attended a Methodist W. S. C. S. District Conference at Em met Friday.

Donnell Durham, Miss Jeanette Gardiner, Miss Bill McCasill, Miss Ida Rae Hamilton, Sidney Parker Davis, and Bobby Elgin attended the Hope high school senior play at Hope Friday night.

Druggists Health!

NO MATTER how long you have been suffering from stomach, kidney and rheumatic distress, and what drugs you have tried before, you can, now, hope for relief if you take GEO-MINERAL. With your eyes SEE the results seven days after you start taking it.

DRUGGISTS, Chemists cannot make GEO-MINERAL. It comes from the earth—Nature's laboratory. Contains NO drugs, NO alcohol, NO oil. ONLY Nature's minerals—the oldest, most reliable remedy for rheumatism, arthritis, kidney and stomach ailments.

Wonder Minerals

FOR THOUSANDS of years sufferers, on advice of doctors, go to mineral springs to get cure, or relief. The late President Roosevelt used to go to Warm Springs in Georgia. He was helped or would not have gone there regularly twice a year.

WE HAVE heard of the miraculous springs of Lourdes, France, and famous Thronion in ancient Greece, where, according to legend Hades, the god of eternal strength and youth, drank its waters and bathed to be forever young.

IF YOU ARE a sufferer, and can not go to the mineral springs, try GEO-MINERAL which contains a blend of the same minerals that can be found at the world's best springs. The minerals in it may work miracles.

Amazing Results

WATCH your elimination from your bowels two or three days after you start using GEO-MINERAL. The waste, black as coal, will break away and you will SEE it! Also examine your urine. You may see impurities—poisonous waste—coming out of your kidneys, and feel the relief. Be sure to watch for all this to realize the priceless value of GEO-MINERAL.

GEO-MINERAL is not a physic, and does not interfere with the foods in the intestines. It acts down to the root, cleaning and purifying, throwing away poisons, gas, toxins and bloating. Not like physics, oils and cathartics do, but in a natural, harmless, safe way.

100% Guaranteed!

WE URGE you to try GEO-MINERAL. Go to your drug store NOW and get one bottle. Use it seven days. If you are not 100 per cent satisfied, we will refund your money in full.

TRY IT! It may be the remedy you NEED! . . . and making the best investment for your health. It may do wonders for you—make you feel, eat, sleep, work and enjoy life better.

Colon Illustrations

THE COLON is one of the most important organs of our body. The following illustrations show the colon in various forms, as one's condition in health may be. You may ask: How is my colon?

THE IDEAL COLON. A person in perfect health possesses a colon like this—firm and regular, with well functioning muscles.

CONSTIPATION is the cause of this atonic abnormal condition of the colon. IMPORTANT: Keep colon free from poisonous waste matter.

SPASTIC CONSTIPATION—Pinching down at the descending colon. This condition often caused by over use of harsh cathartics, physics.
